

Benefits

- 1. supports continuous DPF regeneration
- 2. reduces soot built-up
- 3. prevents malfunctions of the DPF
- 4. reduces pollutant emissions
- 5. ensures a cleaner and more efficient DPF

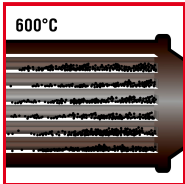

Product Description

BIZOL DPF Regeneration + d61 is a powerful preventive measure additive designed to prolong the lifetime of the Diesel Particulate Filters in any diesel engine. It reduces soot built-up and ensures continuous DPF regeneration, especially on short distances and city traffic.

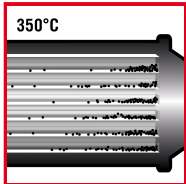

Available Packages

250 ml	250 ml
Art. 98009	Art. 8009

WITHOUT

WITH

Technical Data

Name	Value	Method
Colour	light brown
Appearance	liquid
Density at 15 °C	830 kg/m³	DIN EN ISO 12 185

How to use

A 250 ml can is effective for up to 75 liters of fuel. It can be poured in the tank at any time as it is self-mixing. For preventive maintenance use every 3rd tank filling. In countries with low fuel quality recommended for continuous use.